

Read the Manchester Union Leader and the Concord Monitor For Free.

The Taylor Library has been given access to Newsbanks website for our patrons to be able to read the Union Leader and Concord monitor for free. All you have to do is click on the link at the bottom of our home page, put in your username and password and you will be given access to the site.

Take a moment to look at the site once you have access you will see that you can search by keyword and many other methods which will help you find an article of your choice.

To get your username and password please do one of the following:

1. Contact the library @ 432-7186
2. Contact the library via email and request the information for access to the Union Leader
3. Sign up for our email newsletter and receive all Taylor Library news when it happens as well as the username and password.